2018 TOP 5 PERFORMANCES:

- All-Time #1
 - Brooke Jaworski, the junior from Wausau West, continued her remarkable assault on the Top 50 Lists by branching out and running an all-time #1 time of 43.03 in the 300 meter hurdles the FIRST time she ran the event in competition at this year's Wausau City Meet. She went on to run two faster times, the last one a new D1 state record of 41.40 in winning the D1 State final. Jaworski moved up to the 400 meter hurdles for the summer meets and finished 2nd at the USATF Junior Outdoor National meet with a time of 57.63, a time that would've ranked 18th among NCAA Division 1 women this season. She closed out her 2018 season with a 7th place finish at the IAAF U20 World Championships at Tampere, Finland with a time of 58.43. Jaworski has now recorded 15 Top 50 performances, won 6 individual and 1 relay State Championships, holds 2 All-Division State Records and holds the #1 position on 2 of the Top 50 Lists with one more high school season to go.
- All-Time #2's
 - Armoni Brown, a senior from Waukesha South, leapt 40' 8" at the West Allis Central WIAA Sectional meet to move up to #2 on the triple jump all-time list.
